GWYNFOR'S YEAR

THIS is it. His first year in Parliament. His first year as Member of Parliament for us all and for his Nation and his Country.

That is why, this time, we are all of us remaining silent. No personal messages from individual office-bearers. On the centre page of this booklet there is a message from the first ever Member for Wales. We shall let him speak to us, alone.

All we shall say, before we end, is this.

We have not yet thanked Gwynfor enough for leading us for more than 21 years to believe in ourselves.

We have not thanked him enough for what he did on the 14th of July last year to awaken Wales and to infuse new life into her National Party.

We have not thanked him enough for what he is doing now, every day, at Westminster, on behalf of us all.

But shall we now show him our gratitude in one especial way, by contributing this year to our Party Fund as we have never done before? That is the kind of thanks which he himself will appreciate most of all.

Let us make our St. David's Day Fund a WIN ALL WALES FUND. A fund which will enable us as a Party to send to Parliament at the next General Election a BODY of Welsh National M.P.'s to help Gwynfor set Wales free.

Our heartfelt thanks to you for your contribution or your work in collecting or raising money in 1966. You helped to raise the largest fund in the history of Y Blaid and to wipe out the debt of £4,000 almost completely. With even more generous support this year we shall do work such as we have never done before.

Yours for Wales,

YOUR NATIONAL EXECUTIVE.

BLWYDDYN GWYNFOR

DYNA yw hon. Ei flwyddyn gyntaf yn y Senedd. Ei flwyddyn gyntaf yn Aelod Seneddol drosom i gyd, a thros ei Genedl a'i Wlad.

Dyna pam, am y tro, y mae pawb arall ohonom yn tevi. Ar ddalen ganol y llawlyfr hwn y mae neges oddi wrth yr Aelod cyntaf dros Gymru. Gadawn iddo ef yn unig lefaru wrthym.

Y cyfan a ddywedwn ni, cyn tevi, yw hyn.

Nid ydym eto wedi diolch digon i Gwynfor am ein harwain am fwy nag 21 mlynedd i gredu ynom ein hunain.

Nid ydym wedi diolch digon iddo am yr hyn a wnaeth ar y 14eg o Orffennaf y llynedd i ddeffro Cymru a rhoi egni newydd yn ei Phlaid Genedlaethol.

Nid ydym wedi diolch digon iddo am yr hyn y mae'n ei wneud bob dydd yn San Steffan ar ein mwyn ni oll.

Ond a gawn ni ddangos ein diolchgarwch iddo'n awr mewn ffordd arbennig, sef trwy gyfrannu eleni i Gronfa'r Blaid fel na wnaethom erioed o'r blaen? Dyna'r diolch y bydd ef ei hun yn ei werthfawrogi fwyaf.

Gadewch inni wneud ein Gronfa Gwyl Dewi yn GRONFA ENNILL CYMRU GYFAN. Yn gronfa i'n galluogi fel Plaid i anfon NIFER o Aelodau Cenedlaethol Cymreig i'r Senedd yn yr Etholiad Cyffredinol nesaf i helpu Gwynfor i fynnu Cymru'n rhydd.

Diolch o galon ichi am eich cyfraniad gwerthfawr neu am eich gwaith yn casglu neu'n codi arian ym 1966. Fe roesoch help i godi'r gronfa fwyaf yn hanes y Blaid ac i ddileu'r ddyled o £4,000 bron yn llwyr. Gyda chefnogaeth haelach fyth eleni fe allwn wneud gwaith na wnaethom mo'i debyg erioed o'r blaen.

Yr eiddoch, er mwyn Cymru,

EICH PWYLLGOR GWAITH.

Cefnogwyr llawen yn llonyfarch yr A.S. newydd yng Nghaerfyddin drannoeth yr etholiad.

RHYDDID YN Y GOLWG

GWYNFOR EVANS, A.S.

FY mraint i, yn gyntaf oll, yw diolch ichi'n gynnes iawn am eich cyfraniad i Gronfa Gwyl Dewi y llynedd. Heb eich rhodd chwi a rhoddion cynifer o'n haelodau a'n careddigion, ni fyddai'r Blaid wedi tyfu a llwyddo fel y gwnaeth.

Ac wrth gwrs, tyfiant oedd hanes 1966. A llwyddiant eithriadol. Wedi blynnyddoedd o frwydro yn erbyn pob math o ormes, agored a chudd, gan ein Llywodraethwyr a gwaseidd-dra marwol yn ein mysg ni'n hunain, ar un diwrnod braf yng Ngorfennaf fe dorwyd y gyntaf o'r cadwynau. I etholwyr Sir Gaerfyddin y mae'n rhaid inni oll ddiolch am hyn. Eu ffydd a'u gwroldeb hwy a roddodd gyfle i unig blaidd wleidyddol Cymru lefaru yn Senedd Llundain.

Ac nid hynny'n unig. Oherwydd menter ogoneddus pobl Sir Gâr fe glywodd y byd am Gymru. Fe gyhoeddwyd y newydd mawr ymhob papur newydd ac ar bob tonfedd radio o bwys ar bum cyfandir. O Loegr a sawl gwlad arall fe ddaeth cyfresi o ohebyddion ac unedau ffilmio i ddarganfod y wlad ddieithr hon a elwid Cymru ac i geisio deall ei chenedlaetholdeb hi.

Yn awr, mae'r hyn a wnaeth etholwyr Sir Gaerfyddin yn gwbl bosibl i etholwyr pob sir yng Nghymru. Wedi chwalu'r ofergol "na allai'r Blaid byth ennill", mae'r ffordd yn llawer rhwyddach yn awr i bob etholaeth yn ein gwlad anfon Cenedlaetholwr i San Steffan.

Ac mae'n rhaid gwneud hynny. Er ein bod o dipyn i beth yn gorfodi'r Llywodraeth i symud — i feddwl fwyfwy am Gymru fel uned, i atgyfnerthu'r Swyddfa Gymreig, i ymboeni ychydig mwy ynglyn â safle'r Iaith — y mae'n rhaid cynyddu'r pwyso a'r gwasgu, a hynny'n fuan.

Yr wyf wedi gweld yn gliriach nag erioed er pan wyf yn San Steffan, nad o Lundain y mae rheoli Cymru. Nid oes gan unrhyw Lywodraeth Lundeinig, waeth beth fo'i lliw, ddim ddiddordeb ynom fel gwlad a chenedl. Atodiad trafferthus i Loegr ydym, dyna i gyd, ond bod gennym adnoddau mewn tir a dwr a chynnyrch a llafur sy'n werthfawr i'w dibenion hi.

Ac nid oes gan y Llywodraeth Lafur bresennol unrhyw gynllun economaidd hyd yn hyn ar gyfer Cymru. Gwaeth na hynny, mae'i mesurau economaidd diweddar, a fwriadwyd yn unig i hybu diwydiannau mawrion Lloegr a chryfhau safle'r bunt ym manciau'r byd, yn dryllio'n heonomi ni. Mae creu yn fwriadol fwy o diweithdra mewn gwlad fel Cymru, lle mae diweithdra bob amser tua dwywaith yr hyn ydyw yn Lloegr, yn wallgofrwydd noeth. Os da yw gyrru gweithwyr o ddiwydiant i ddiwydiant yn Lloegr, beth yw effaith y fath bolisi ar Gymru? Nid eu gyrru i ddiwydiannau eraill — nid yw'r rheini'n bod — ond eu gyrru o Gymru'n gyfangwbl.

Ac nid yw'r Llywodraeth Lafur yn gweld peth fel hyn yn difrifol. Mae'r Ysgrifennydd dros Gymru'n medru sôn yn sionic am ryw ddyddiau braf gerllaw, a'r Aelodau Llafur Cymreig yn canmol y Llywodraeth hon "am wneud mwy dros Gymru nag unrhyw Lywodraeth o'i blaen". Dyna dristwch eithaf gwleidyddiaeth Seisnig yng Nghymru.

TERFYNU'R ORMES

Ac mae'r Llywodraeth hon yn dal i oedi a phetruso ynglyn â safle gyfreithiol y Gymraeg. Nid yw eto wedi rhoi unrhyw fath o Fwrdd Dwr i Gymru. Mae'i bryd ar fynd i'r Farchnad Gyffredin gan lusgo Cymru gyda hi heb ddim darpariaeth ar gyfer ei hanhenion a'i hanawsterau gwahanol. Ac mae'n cynllunio i wasgu ffermydd teuluol Cymru allan o fod.

Rhaid rhoi terfyn ar yr ormes hon yn awr. Nid oes ateb arall i'r fath gamlywodraeth ond bwrw'r pleidiau Llundeinig o'u seddau yng Nghymru ac ethol i San Steffan gorff cadarn o Aelodau Cenedlaethol Cymreig. Mae dim ond un Cenedlaetholwr yn medru gwneud i Lundain wrando — a gwrandio ar wirioneddau na chlywoodd erioed mohonynt o'r blaen. Fe wnâi dwsin o Genedlaetholwyr i Lundain weithredu. A'r weithred honno fyddai rhoi i Gymru ei Senedd etholedig ei hun. Ni ellid ei gwrthod inni, oherwydd dyna, yn hollo amlwg, fyddai ewyllys y genedl Gymreig — a'r byd i gyd yn dyst o hynny.

Y FRWYDR DERFYNOL

Ac fe allwn wneud hyn yn yr etholiad cyffredinol nesaf. Mae'r Blaid yn prysur dyfu'n fawr. Yr ydym eisoes yn dileu un o'r pleidiau Llundeinig yng Nghymru. Ni fyddwn yn hir cyn llwyr drechu un arall. Bydd y maes yn glir inni wedyn yn ein brwydr derfynol a'r blaid y mae Cymru gyfan bron yn ei chrafangau heddiw. Oddi ar y blaid nerthol honno y cip- iwyd Caerfyddin, ac mae hynny'n dangos yn eglur y gellir llacio'i gafael hithau ar ein gwlad ar fyr o dro.

Ond mae gwneud Plaid Cymru'n blaid gryfaf Cymru yn mynd i olygu rhoi. A rhoi hyd ein heithaf.

Yn un peth, fe ddylai plaid fodern effeithiol allu talu cyflogau teilwng i'w staff. Mae aberth ein swyddogion taledig, sy wedi gweithio mor ddirwgnach ar hyd yr hir flynyddoedd am gyflog mor fychan, yn rhyfeddod parhaus i mi. Ni allai dim ond cariad eirias at eu gwlad ac ymgysgriad llwyr i'w hachos fod wedi eu cadw yn eu gwaith. Fe ddylem ymdyngchedu, eleni, bob un ohonom, i'w gwneud hi'n bosibl i'r cyfeillion ffyddlon hyn gael tâl teilwng o'u llafur hwy ac o statws plaid sy'n mynd i ennill Cymru.

MWY O STAFF

Ac nid talu'n deilyngach iddynt yn unig. Ond, hefyd, ychwanegu at eu nifer. Rhaid i Blaid sy'n tyfu fel hyn gael mwy o weithwyr amser llawn. Mae angen — yn awr — swyddogion ychwanegol i ofalu am drefn-iadaeth, cyhoeddusrwydd, cyllid; mwy o deipyddion; mwy o drefnyddion allan yn y maes. I ennill Cymru gyfan yn fuan mae'n rhaid wrth staff niferus sy'n rhoi eu holl amser i'r gwaith. A dyma'r amser i adeiladu cronda fawr i wneud hynny'n bosibl.

'Does dim lle yma i sôn am anghenion eraill. Efallai y caf grybwyl un peth yn unig. Ni all plaid wleid-yddol daenu'i neges yn effeithiol heb ddefnyddio pob cyfrwng sydd o fewn cyrraedd. Mae'n rhaid wrth lenyddiaeth. Bu'r Blaid ers blynnyddoedd lawer yn cyhoeddi mwy o bamffledi a thaflenni nag unrhyw blaidd arall yng Nghymru. Ond mae angen llawer mwy eto, ar lu o bynciau, a'r rheini wedi'u cynhyrchu'n lliwgar ac yn broffesiynol. Fe ddylai'r Welsh Nation fod yn bapur wythnosol pwysig. Fe ddylem allu hysbys-ebu'n amlach ac yn helaethach yn y Wasg. Ac mae angen llu o bosteri i ddal pob llygad yng Nghymru.

Ond mae'r pethau hanfodol hyn yn mynd i gwestiō arian mawr. Ac nid yw codi'r arian hwnnw'n amhosibl. Fe ddangosodd Cronfa 1966 y gallem ddod o fewn golwg i £25,000 mewn blwyddyn — sy'n gamp o haelioni a gweithgarwch. Ond mi gredaf yn siwr fod miloedd eraill yng Nghymru a all roi, ac a fyddai'n falch o roi, pe gofynnid iddynt; a bod miloedd hefyd a fyddai'n barod iawn i ymuno mewn gweithgareddau codi arian o bob math, dim on eu gwahodd. Dyna fesur y newid yng Nghymru o fewn y misoedd diwethaf hyn.

CALONDID BEUNYDDIOL

Mi wn yn dda fod llawer o'n ffyddloniaid yn rhoi eisoes hyd yr eithaf, nifer mawr ohonynt dan amgylchiadau anodd iawn. Ond efallai fod rhai cannoedd ohonom a allai godi rhywfaint eto ar ein cyfraniad blynnyddol. Ac mae'n werth gwneud yr ymdrech ychwanegol yn awr, am y pedair blynedd nesaf dyngedfennol hyn, a ninnau mor agos at fuddugoliaeth, a Rhyddid yn y golwg.

Y llynedd, ychydig fisoeedd cyn ein llwyddiant cyntaf mewn etholiad seneddol, fe werthodd y Dr. D. J. Williams ei hen gartref a rhoi'r arian yn gyfar i'w Blaid. Ni allaf beidio â theimlo bod yr aberth tywysogaidd hwnnw wedi cynhesu ysbyrd miloedd o Genedlaetholwyr ac wedi palmantu'r ffordd i fuddugoliaeth. Dyna'r math o roi sy'n mynd i achub Cymru.

Wrth gloi, mi garwn ddiolch yn bersonol eto, o waelod calon, i bob un a gyfrannodd ym 1966 at achos rhyddid ein gwlad, drwy roi neu godi arian, ac i bob un a lafuriodd ymhob rhyw fodd i wneud Cymru'n fater bywyd i eraill. Y mae'r fath haelioni ac ymraddiad yn galondid beunyddiol i mi, ac yn argoel o'r dyfodol gwych a fydd i'n gwlad pan ddêl ei hawr i gymryd ei lle ymyst cenhedloedd rhydd y ddaear. Ac fe all y daw'r awr honno yn gynt nag y mae neb ohonom yn disgwyl.

Pob bendith arnoch i gyd.

GWYNFOR EVANS

THE WAY TO VICTORY

GWYNFOR EVANS, M.P.

IT is my privilege, first of all, to thank you most warmly for your contribution to last year's St. David's Day Fund. Without your gift, and those of so many of our members and friends, Y Blaid would not have grown and succeeded as it did.

1966, as we all know, was a year of growth and unprecedented success. After years of battling against oppression, both blatant and subtle, by our Rulers, and paralysing servility amongst ourselves, on one fine day in July the first of our chains was broken. It is the electors of Carmarthenshire whom we have to thank for this. It was their faith and courage that gave Wales' only political party the chance to speak in the London Parliament.

And not only that. Thanks to the noble initiative of the people of Carmarthenshire the world heard about Wales. The great news was announced in every newspaper of note and broadcast on every important wavelength on five continents. From England and several other countries relays of correspondents came to discover this strange land called Wales and to try and understand our nationalism.

Now, what the electors of Carmarthenshire have done, the electors of every county in Wales can do. The shattering of the superstition that "Y Blaid could never win" has made it far easier for every constituency in our land to return a Plaid Cymru M.P. to Westminster.

And it must be done. Although we are, little by little, forcing the London Government to move—to think more of Wales as a unit, to strengthen the Welsh Office, to be more concerned about the status of the Welsh language—we must increase the pressure, and soon.

I have seen more clearly than ever, since my election to Parliament, that Wales cannot be governed from London. No London Government, whatever its colour, is at all interested in us as a country and a nation. We are merely a troublesome appendix to England, except that we have valuable resources in land and water and produce and labour which are useful for her needs.

And the present Labour Government has still no economic plan for Wales. What is worse, its recent economic measures, designed solely to boost the big manufacturing industries of England and to strengthen the pound abroad, are wrecking our economy.

To create, deliberately, more unemployment in Wales, where it has always been about twice as high as in England, is sheer lunacy. Even if it is a good thing to drive workers from one industry to another in England, what effect has such a policy on Wales? Not to drive them to other industries—they do not exist—but to drive them out of Wales altogether.

The Labour Government does not consider this kind of situation serious. The Secretary of State for Wales talks cheerfully of "long term plans" and better times ahead, and Welsh Labour M.P.'s praise this Government for "doing more for Wales than any previous administration." This is the ultimate sadness of English politics in Wales.

This Government still avoids doing anything about the legal status of Welsh. It has still not created a Welsh Water Board. It intends to plunge into the Common Market, dragging Wales along without any consideration of her special needs and difficulties. And it is planning now to squeeze the family farms of Wales out of existence.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwynfor Evans with President de Valera of Ireland at his home last autumn.

The Returning Officer for Carmarthen, Mr. W. S. Thomas, declares Gwynfor Evans elected after the historic by-election last July.

need — now — for additional staff to deal with organisation, publicity, finance; more typists; more field organisers out among the electors. To win Wales soon we need an adequate staff giving all their time to the work. And now is the time to build the fund which will make this possible.

There is not room here to mention other needs. Perhaps I may touch upon one only. No political party can get its message over effectively unless it uses every available medium. Literature is essential. For many years now Y Blaid has published more pamphlets and leaflets than any other political party in Wales.

But we must publish many more, on every aspect of our policy, and they must be more professionally produced. The Welsh Nation should be an important weekly newspaper. We should be able to advertise more extensively in the Press. And there should be bigger and better posters everywhere winning hearts and minds for Wales.

These necessities, however, will cost a great deal of money. But to raise that kind of money is possible. The 1966 Fund showed that we could come within sight of £25,000 in a single year — which is a feat of generosity and hard work. I am sure, though, that there are thousands more in Wales and beyond who can give, and would be glad to give, if they were asked, and that there are thousands who would readily join in fund-raising activities of all kinds if only they were invited. That is the measure of the change in Wales during the past few months.

PRINCELY SACRIFICE

I know very well that a large number of our loyal members and supporters are already giving all they can afford, many of them in very difficult circumstances. But there may be hundreds of us who could raise our annual subscription without hardship. It is worth making the extra effort now, for the momentous four years ahead, when we are so close to victory, with our precious freedom in sight.

Last year, a few months before our first success in a parliamentary election, Dr. D. J. Williams sold his childhood home and gave all the money to his Plaid. I cannot help feeling that this princely sacrifice warmed the hearts of thousands of true Welshmen and helped build the new confidence which led to victory. That is the kind of giving which will save Wales.

In closing, I want personally once again to thank everyone who contributed during 1966 towards the cause of our country's freedom, by giving or raising money, and everyone who worked in any way whatsoever to make Wales matter to others. Such generosity and dedication are a daily inspiration to me in my work, and a portent of the fine future that awaits our country when her time comes to take her place among the free nations of the world. That time may come sooner than any one of us expects.

Diolch yn fawr.

GWYNFOR EVANS.

We must put an end to this kind of oppression now. There is no other answer to such misgovernment but to eject the London political parties from their seats in Wales and to return to Westminster a solid phalanx of Welsh National M.P.'s. One Welsh Nationalist only can make London listen — and listen to home truths which it has never been told before. A dozen Nationalists would make London act. That action would be to give Wales her own elected Parliament. It could not be refused us, because that, quite obviously, would be the will of the Welsh nation — and the whole world would be witness to it.

We can do this in the next general election. Plaid Cymru is growing fast. We are already replacing one of the London Parties in Wales. It will not be long before we reduce another to insignificance. The field will then be clear for our final battle with the party which today holds most of Wales in its grip. Carmarthen was wrenching from that grip. This shows that even London - Labour's mighty hold upon our country can be loosened in quite a short time.

MORE STAFF

But to make Plaid Cymru the strongest party in Wales means giving. To the utmost.

To begin with, an efficient modern party should be able to pay every member of its staff a decent salary. The sacrifice of our paid officials, who have worked uncomplainingly throughout the years for so little, constantly amazes me. Nothing but a burning love of their country and a total dedication to its cause could have kept them at their posts. Let us this year, each and every one of us, determine to make it possible for these loyal friends to be paid a salary worthy of their great service and of the status of a party which is going to win all Wales.

Not only should we pay them better. We must also add to their number. A growing party such as ours should have more full-time workers. There is
